
Cannon Hill Park Sunday 15th June

Posted by mark - 2008/06/12 05:45

Although we haven't got a club-stand booked, some of us have decided to go to the B'ham mini owners club annual event this Sunday at Cannon Hill Park.

To date, there are four minis going and we aren't going to start a list but if you wish to convoy with us to the event, we are leaving the Turf Lodge carpark (on the A5 between Cannock & Brownhills) at 0915am this coming Sunday.

The weather looks changeable.

Will be going if dry or light showers, will not be going if raining.
