
Re-upholsterers

Posted by emma - 2008/05/01 18:12

Does anyone know of any decent re-upholsterers that don't charge a fortune in the area. I want to price up having the interior in the mini re-trimmed. Thanks.

Fancied changing it to leather - I have a friend at work whose husband works in the leather industry and can recommend a wholesale supplier I just need someone with the ability to stitch it. They can make patterns from the original seat covers. But thanks anyway Sonia. If anyone else knows of anything or has any other ideas please let me know.
